Hi, I'm Evie!

I'm a wife, mom and have been a change leader for over a decade. For nearly 2 decades, my passion as a motivational speaker has been to transform hearts and minds to believe in themselves on a deeper level. With a background in corporate, community, educational and faith based spaces, I provide an experience where my listeners will dig deeper, laugh a little and work on their repair, development and vision in a meaningful way.

My specialty as a nationally ranked Change Leader and workshop facilitator allows me to uniquely transition listeners through their own personal change in an empowering, scientifically proven and thought-provoking manner. To date, I've delivered keynote inspirational moments to tens of thousands, and trained over 500 people managers and executive leaders in the last 5 years.

My Services

➔ Key Note Speaking

Engage, inspire, and empower your team with a dynamic keynote presentation tailored to resonate with your organization's goals. Through storytelling and actionable insights, each keynote motivates teams to embrace change and drive success. I deliver impactful messages that leave lasting impressions and spark meaningful growth.

➔ Workshop Facilitation

Hands-on, interactive workshops designed to deepen skills in resilience, strategic acumen, and adaptable leadership. Through collaborative exercises and real-world scenarios, participants gain practical tools they can immediately apply to their roles. My facilitation style promotes engagement, dialogue, and skill-building that supports lasting transformation.
